

Working Stockdog Clinic sponsored by ASCNE April 25 and 26, 2009

Clinician: Jim Hartnagle from Colorado

Entries and Fees: Entries will be accepted 3/15/09-4/15/09 on ASCA Stockdog entry forms.

Participation on both days will be $200 per person and Auditors will be $25 each day which will include lunch

Clinic Formats:

Saturday April 25- 15 working participants with at least two opportunities to work their dog with Jim Hartnagle. Jim is open to working on whatever issues the handler may be having with their dog(s). Breaks will be taken to explain scenarios and to answer questions that attendants may have. This clinic format is a good way to get started working a dog and have an opportunity to see other dog and handler teams work.

Saturday fee which will include lunch is $90 per person

Sunday April 26 – 8 working spots will be available to be able to further assist those participants that have more advanced dogs and want to spend more time with the clinician. An hour will be allotted per person and will likely be broken down into 20-30 minute sessions that day. Please let me know your preference for the A.M. or P.M. sessions on Sunday.

Sunday fee which will include lunch is $125 per person

Clinic Location: Riverfare Farms 301 Tyler Rd. Webster, NH
The indoor arena will be used for both clinics. Livestock will be sheep and goats.
