End of Summer Betty Williams Clinic

On Sheep and Ducks

Thursday, September 11th, 2014

Clinician: Betty Williams from Montana

Location: Landry Farm, 368 North West Road, Canterbury, NH 03224

9:30 am – 4:00 pm (lunch is included)

Clinic is limited to 6 working slots @ $120/ea. with auditors welcomed @ $30 ea.

Betty and her husband, John, call The Sweeting Ranch in Lewiston, Montana their home. Betty is an ASCA judge and is also well known for her 'W Lazy J' lines of working Australian Shepherds. Among her countless accomplishments Betty handled her dog, Spur, to the 2010 ASCA Finals Stockdog Championship in Cattle, Sheep and High-Combined. Although Betty enjoys tremendous success in the stockdog ring, she also brings a practical approach to training, making her dogs indispensable in operating a 4400 acre ranch with some three hundred plus head of stock in the rugged foothills of the Snowy Mountains.

In this clinic we'll mix farm chores such as loading a trailer, using gates and chutes, bringing stock to and from the barn along with ring work including gate and panel work, fetches and drives. Betty has the flexibility to work with all levels and her teaching style makes participating fun and productive and auditing is useful and advantageous.
